September Show at Guardino

From unexpected sculptors to paintings of intrigue, Guardino Gallery, 2939 N.E. Alberta St., is featuring the works of a group of artists for its September show.

In the Main Gallery are Kendall Mingey's works in bronze; creations of unique and unexpected sculptures. Kathleen Powers, with paintings of intrigue, shows fable-like paintings and drawings that exhibit an underlining core of disquiet, and often, uncomfortable beauty.

Other artists featured through Sept. 27 include Carolyn Hazel Drake, who builds mixed-media porcelain ceramic sculpture, and

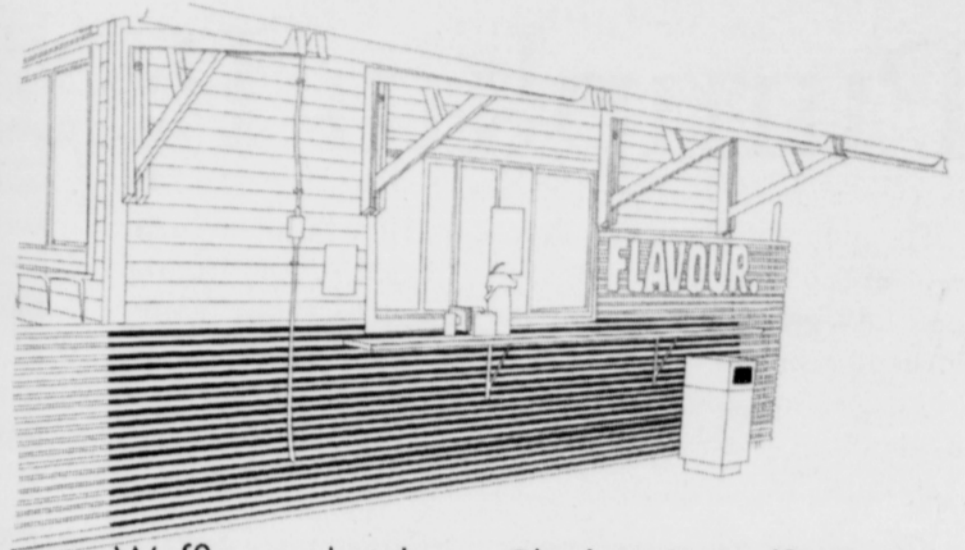

'Atlas,' a bronze sculpture by Kendall Mingey.

Deb Perry-Guetti, who stitches together, by hand, small pen and ink drawings using natural materials, including handmade papers, wax, and organic threads, raw pigments and inks.
