Lady Kat at Queen of Heart

Blues artists Lady Kat and her "True Blue" Band will perform on Friday, Sept. 24 from 8 p.m. to 12 a.m. at the Queen of Hearts Tavern on Southeast 72nd and Harold.

Lady Kat's low, rich and full-bodied voice carries the likes of Etta James, with a little of Wynonna's twang, and the depth of Della Reese. Born and raised in the Northwest, she was surrounded by the sounds of Blues and Country Music.

Lady Kat

The Lady Kat "True Blue" Band has performed with the Northwest Women Rhythm n' Blues, made up of several local and national artists in and around the Northwest. For the past six years, Lady Kat has performed at the Waterfront Blues Festival and most recently, shared the stage with Fiona Boyd, Duffy Bishop, Lady A, and Ellen White.

Admission includes no cover.

Bikes welcome at Teddy Bear Parade

Ride your Bike to the Teddy Bear Parade in downtown Gresham on Saturday, Sept. 24, and stay to take part in the annual Transportation Fair and Bike Radio from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The parade begins at 10 a.m. at the Gresham Center for the Arts Plaza, Second Street and Hood Avenue in historic downtown with all-day bicycle parking available at 9 a.m. at the Arts Plaza.

The event is free and includes musical entertainment, carnival games, bike games and safety, prizes, bike helmets for $5, and food and beverages available for purchase.

Participants can also learn about transportation options like how to ride public transit and how to find a carpool partner with the region's new "Rideshare" website, safety tips, and how to provide feedback on Gresham's Transportation System Plan.

Multi-use helmets in toddler through adult sizes will be sold for $5, with limited stock available.
