Julianne Johnson

Patrick Lamb

Local Celebrities Host Benefit Saturday concert at Madeleine Parish

An evening with Julianne Johnson and friends, featuring Patrick Lamb and Michael Allen Harrison, will benefit a non-profit community in which people with and without developmental disabilities share life together.

Harrison delivers music direct to the heart through the keys of his piano. His musical artistry, upbeat sound and skills at producing and creating music for ballet, theater and film have entertained audiences for decades.

The concert will be held on Saturday, Oct. 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the Madeleine Parish, 3123 N.E. 24th Ave.

All proceeds will go directly to support L'Arche, one-of-kind organization that differs from typical group homes in that the caregivers choose to live in community as family with adults with developmental disabilities. This difference creates a culture of equality and grows out of the community's belief in the unique value of every person and our need for one another.

Johnson, a renowned local artist long known for her philanthropic work, performs a wide range of musical genres from jazz to R & B, Motown to Broadway, and gospel to blues. Lamb is a soulful and vibrant saxophonist well-known to Portland audiences for his captivating performances at the Waterfront Blues Festival, Jimmy Mak's and the Oregon Symphony.

Tickets are $20 in advance and $25 at the door. Visit larche-portland.org or call 503-251-6901.
