Celebrate All Things Dog

The World Forestry Center will host its fourth annual Doggie Palooza on Sunday, Oct. 16 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Visitors and their canine companions are invited to howl in delight as they visit with local pet vendors who will be sampling treats, giving training advice, and showing the latest canine fashions.

This special pet fair is the one day a year when dogs are allowed in the Discovery Museum where the annual Spot Magazine cover model search will be held. For a small fee, dog parents can have Visitors can also learn about pet safety from a local veterinarian, view a fashion show, and watch as dogs strut their stuff on the cat walk. Later visitors can enter their furry friends in the Pooch Parade where canines will compete for best fall fashion, pet owner look-a-like, and best pet trick. Prizes from local pet shops and exhibitors will be awarded to the winners.

Admission is $8 for adults, $7 for seniors and $5 for children.
