

RELIGION

"We carry your heart in our hands, with compassion and care"

"Ask for Margret Neal"
Funeral Director/Owner

Compassionate Heart Funeral Home

1093 SW Tobias Way Aloha, Oregon 97006
(503) 642-4620

This facility is licensed by the Oregon State Mortuary & Cemetery board #0445 effective Date April 6, 2010 Certification #8407

www.nealscompassionateheartfuneralhome.com

MY FATHER'S HOUSE
MINISTRIES Come and Experience
Faith and Miracles!

Join us for our

Thanksgiving Service

With Special
Musical Guest
Dawn Robinson

Friday, November 18th at 7pm

New Song Community Center
2511 NE MLK Blvd • Portland, OR 97212
Corner of NE MLK Blvd and Russell Street
Doors open at 6pm for every service.

For directions or more information, call 503-488-5481
or log on to www.mfhmportland.com

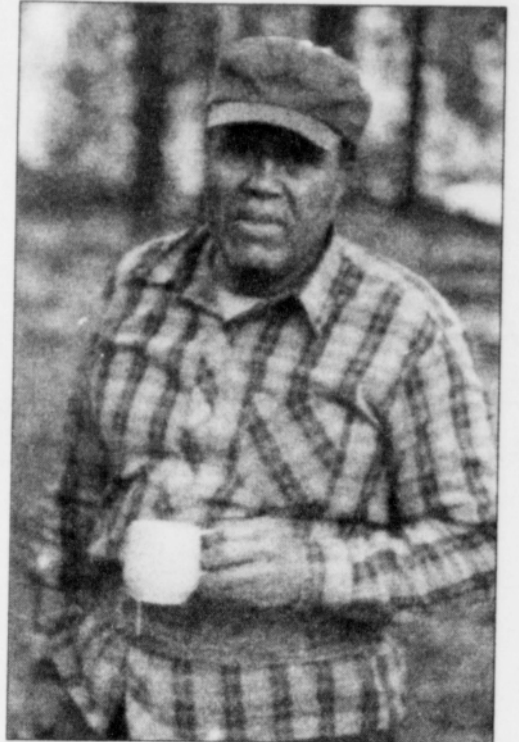

With Love Forever

Artic Mack Parker

Artic Mack Parker, for whom we will forever love and cherish, came to pass on Monday, Nov. 7 2011. Mack had many friends who knew him from his hard work serving the north Portland Community. Many knew him from coaching Little League baseball. Mack was also an accomplished Auto Body technician for over 50 years.

He leaves behind his only son Bill Parker; five granddaughters; four great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

Services will be held Friday, Nov. 11 at 11 a.m. at Caldwell's Funeral Home, 20 N.E. 14th Ave.

In Loving Memory

Lawrence Alberti

Lawrence Alberti passed away peacefully at the age of 95. Born in Wagoner, Okla., he came to Oregon in 1921. He eventually settled in Portland with his mother Bessie Alberti and brother Tom Alberti.

He was a graduate of Benson Polytechnic High School where he excelled in track and was city broad jump champion. He served in the Army during World War II and returned to service in the Korean War where he achieved master sergeant status and oversaw over 150 soldiers.

After working as a Red Cap at Union Station, he found his career calling for the Postal Service in Lake Oswego. For 27 years he was supervisor of the transportation and maintenance department.

He was the first Afro American in Oregon to be elected Grand Commander of the Military Order of the Cooties, an honored degree of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was also a member of the First Presbyterian Church. He participated in community activism and enjoyed an active social life with many friends and family members.

He was preceded in death by two wives, Bernice Jeanmarie and Nadine Hines. He is survived by a daughter Veronica Alberti, two sons David and Lawrence; three grandchildren; and two great grandchildren.

A public viewing will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 9 at Rose City Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday, Nov. 10 at First Presbyterian Church, 1200 S.W. Alder St. Interment to follow in Willamette National Cemetery.

Supporting Women in Need

A fundraising luncheon will kick off a campaign to open a transitional home for recently incarcerated women.

Sponsored by the Highland Access, Reentry and Recovery (HAARP) program, the event will be held Friday, Nov. 11 at 11:45 a.m. at the Highland Christian Center, 7600 N.E. Glisan St. Multnomah County District Court Judge Adrienne Nelson will address the topic of the role of faith-based organizations in the reentry field.

HARRP provides mentorship and counseling to men and women coming out of prison. During the fundraising event, Roy Jay of the African American Chamber of Commerce will act as master of ceremonies. Luncheon donations are $50 per plate. For tickets and information call the Highland Christian Center at 503-287-9567 or visit harrp.org.