

In the Neighborhood

Considering the legacy of Martin Luther King Jr., how do you see the fight for equality and justice today?

We need stronger black fathers, uncles, and grandfathers that are going to build a foundation for the younger generation.

Albert Graham
Northeast Portland

I definitely don't think that things have come as far as they should have. There is a lot more awareness, but it is still not where it should be.

Virginia Schaeffer
Northeast Portland

He did a good job in making people aware of race relations in today's society, but I'm not sure people understand or practice what he preaches.

Harry Liu
Northeast Portland

We still have these problems today. Our young black kids are getting pulled over, just because.

Reggie Brown
Northeast Portland

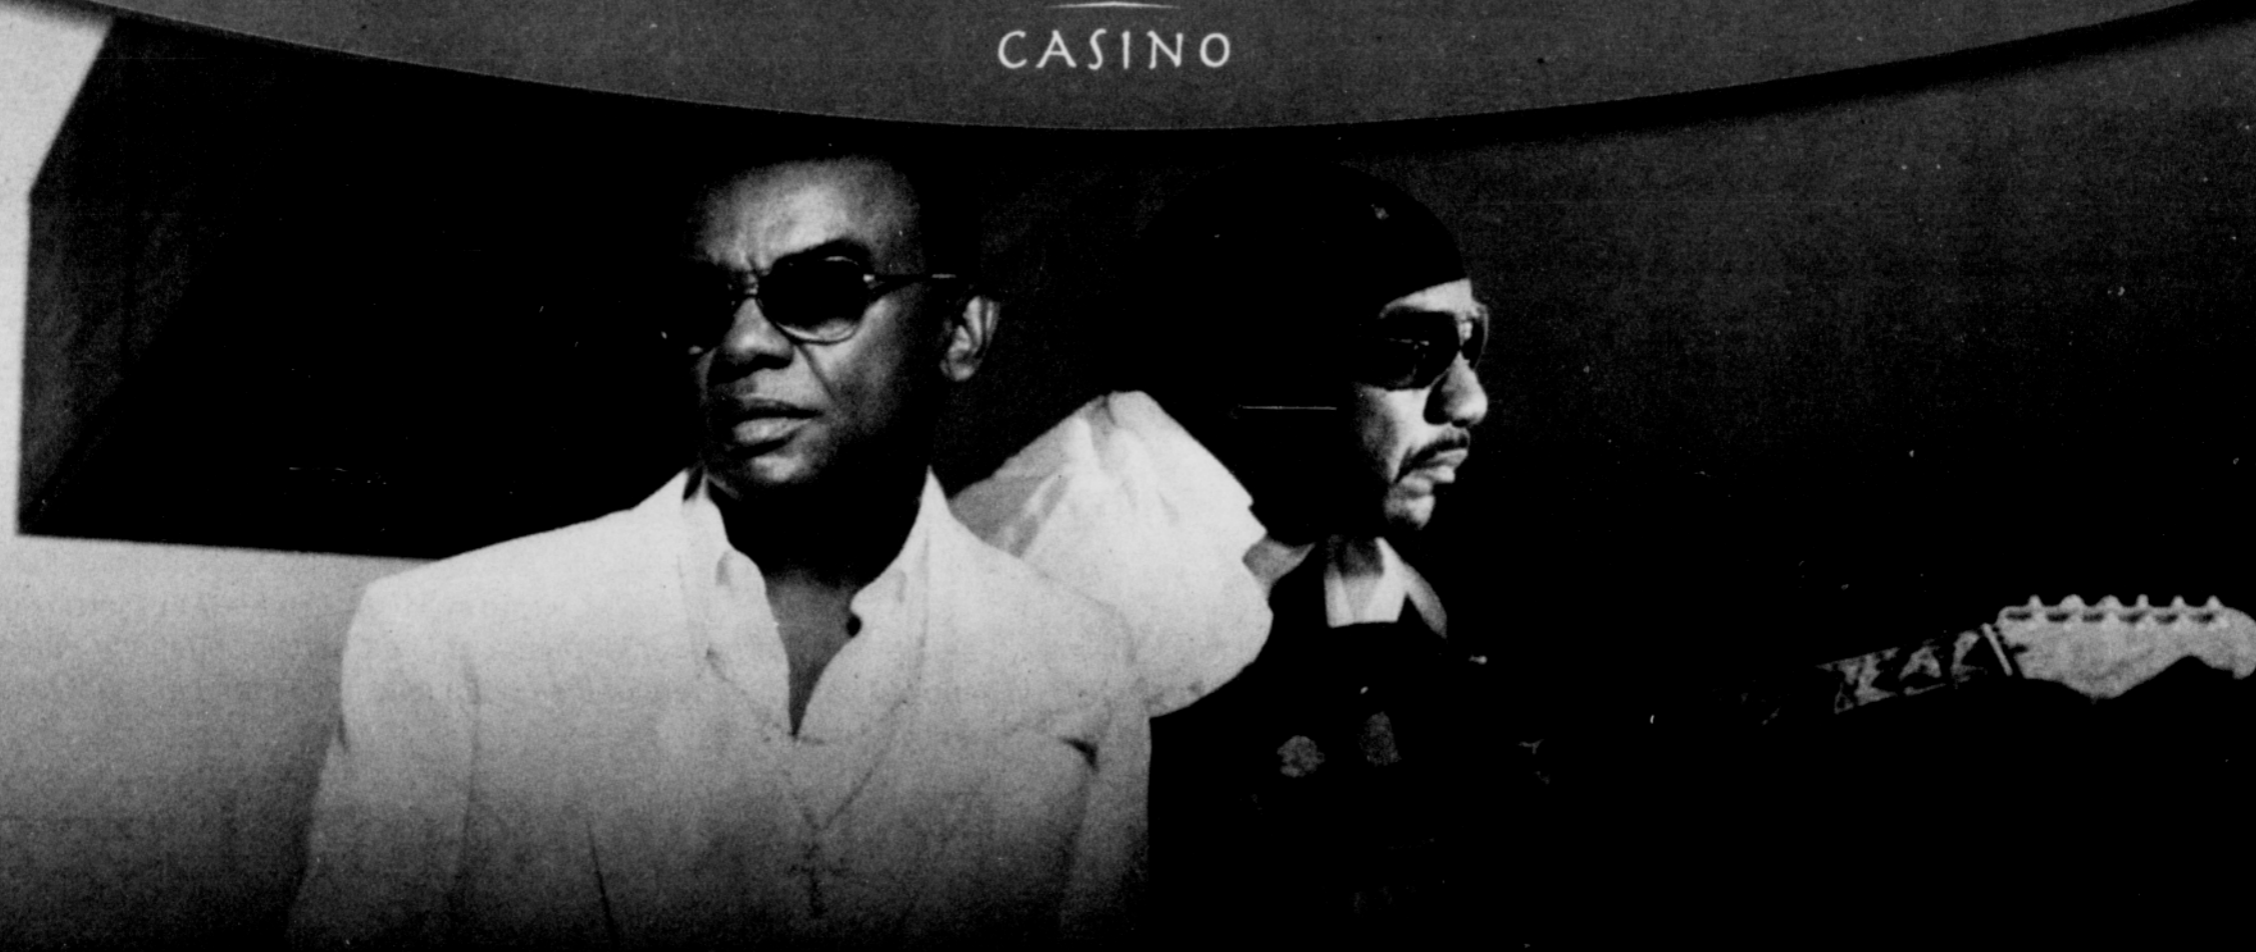

Make a night of it.
