Portland Police respond to shots fired in the vicinity of North Freemont Street and Williams Avenue on Sunday. Authorities said a shooter fired at a moving vehicle, which contained several children.

Shots Fired in Multiple Locations

No one was injured in any of the six reported gang-related shootings that happened since Sunday in various locations throughout the city.

Portland Police Bureau gang enforcement officers arrested Bennie Gene London III, 15, on Monday for three counts of attempted murder in connection to one of the shootings which occurred on Sunday on Southeast 162nd Avenue.

Two other shootings occurred on Sunday in southeast Portland, including shots fired on 72nd Avenue and at a residence on 143rd Avenue, and police found shell casings in front of a 7-11 at North Fessenden Street just after midnight on Monday morning.
