BodyVox presents the Skinner/Kirk Dance Ensemble, the second show of its current home season, with co-artistic directors Eric Skinner and Daniel Kirk who will take the stage for performances on Thursday, Feb. 2, through Feb. 11 at the BodyVox Dance Center, 1201 N.W. 17th Ave.

Skinner and Kirk are two of Portland's most gifted dancer/choreographers, and mainstays of Portland's rich dance culture.

The Skinner/Kirk Dance Ensemble performs work that is intensely musical and inherently moving. For tickets or more information, visit bodyvox.com or call 503-229-0627.

February Shows at Guardino

The February calendar at Guardino Gallery, 2939 N.E. Alberta St., features the individual works of two artists and a group show with 16 artists.

In the Main Gallery, Chris Giffin presents her mixed media sculptures. She creates one-of-a-kind animal and human figures from recycled materials and found objects.

The other featured artist is Maryanna Hoggatt who takes you into a world of whimsy and other worldliness with her works on paper, using a combination of inks, watercolors and pastels, rich in color and detail.

Guardino's 4th annual group show, "The Heart of the Matter" features 16 artists interpreting hearts.
