Rick Hendrix

Sarah Deswert-Hendrix

Wanted for Auction Fraud

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of Rick Devan Hendrix, 56, and Sarah Candace Deswert-Hendrix, 30, who are wanted in connection with an alleged Internet auction fraud scheme.

The FBI and U.S. Postal Inspection Service arrested the couple in 2005 at their home in Portland. They disappeared, however, while on pre-trial release. Investigators believe Rick Hendrix may now be living in the Beaverton area.

They are accused of taking pictures of items in stores, posting the items for sale on an Internet auction site, and collecting money from bidders. Victims in Oregon, Washington, and California suffered more than $300,000 in losses.

Anyone with information to the location of Hendrix or Deswert is asked to call the FBI at 503-224-4181.

Ex-Teacher Arrested Again

A former Benson High School teacher is once again facing a criminal drug charge.

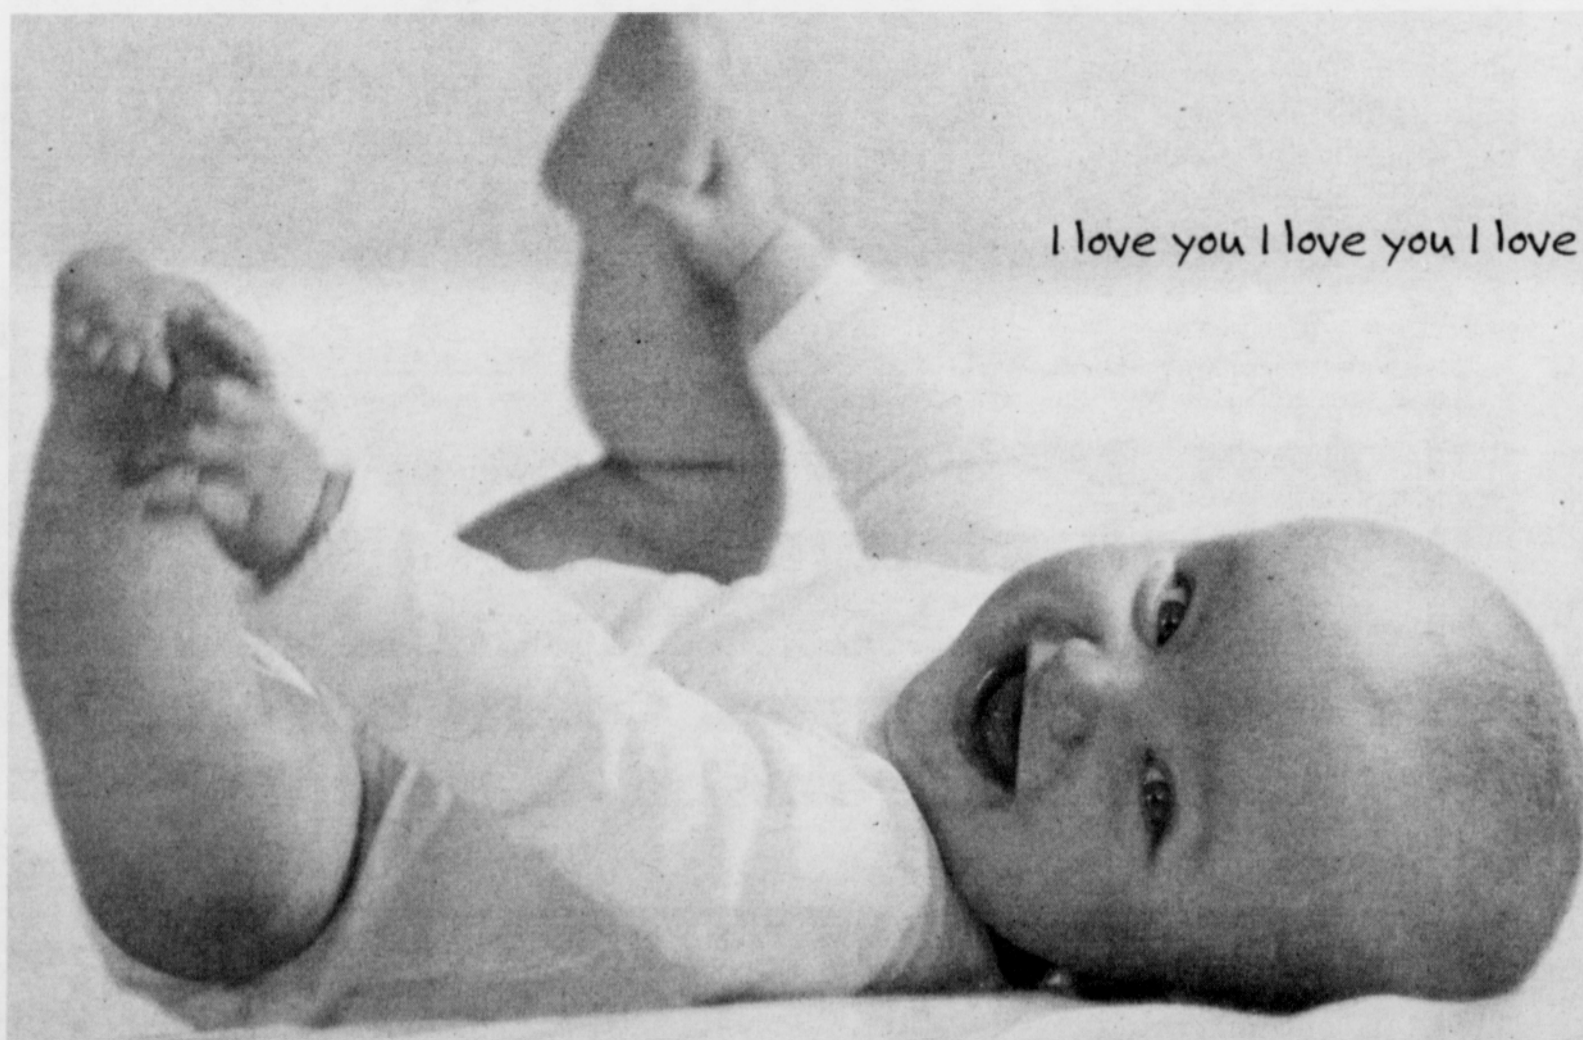

Zuleyma Figueroa

Zuleyma Figueroa was arrested Jan. 26 for distribution and possession of cocaine and booked into the Multnomah County Jail.

Figueroa, 37, pled guilty to distributing methamphetamine after a 2009 arrest, causing her to lose her teaching license.

On Dec. 8, members of the Portland Police Bureau's Drugs and Vice Division received information that an automotive shop she owned with Concepcion Mendez-Hernandez, 42, was being used to store and facilitate the sale of narcotics.

A kilo of cocaine, with an estimated street value of $100,000, was recovered in a trash can inside the shop during a search of the premises.
