Jen Ambrose

Dynamic songwriter Jen Ambrose will perform Friday, Feb. 24 at 7 p.m. at the Alberta Rose Theater, 3000 N.E. Alberta St.

Ambrose expresses unabashed soul and emotion throughout the tapestry of her original music. She bridges genres spanning from Americana to folk, blues to jazz, rock to country to world music, evoking elements of both enchantment and rootsyness.

Her songwriting diversity reveals a subtle ear and skillful musicianship that is intrinsic to her artistry. The penetrating poetry of her lyrics is mirrored by a vocal agility that dances from melodic and subtle to deep and gritty.

Tickets are $10 in advance and $12 at the door.

Elizabeth Taylor and Paul Newman star in A Cat on a Hot Tin Roof. The film classic will be screened on Monday, Feb. 27 at the Hollywood Theater in northeast Portland as part of an Elizabeth Taylor birthday celebration that benefits Cascade AIDS Project and the da Vinci Arts Middle School.

Elizabeth Taylor Birthday Celebration

Laela Wilding, granddaughter of the late Elizabeth Taylor, invites fellow Portlanders to a party to celebrate what would have been her grandmother's 80th birthday. On Monday Feb. 27, the Hollywood Theatre will open its doors in honor of the actress with a special screening of the classic film, Cat on a Hot Tin Roof.

The party and screening is open to the public, with a suggested donation of $10 to support Cascade AIDS Project and the public arts-focused school, da Vinci Arts Middle School. These two non-profit organizations reflect what Ms. Taylor is best remembered, as a tireless AIDS activist and an artist who began her craft as a young child.

"I look forward to celebrating my grandmother's accomplishments and honoring her life with this very special screening. It is important to me to carry on her activism and to give back to the community in which I live," said Wilding. "I encourage friends, film-fans, art-lovers and activists to join us in what I hope will become an annual event."
