

ENTERTAINMENT GUIDE

Black History Month Lecture -- Reed College invites the public to hear best-selling author Isabel Wilkerson on Saturday, Feb. 25 at 7:30 p.m. in Kaul Auditorium. Wilkerson spent years interviewing more than 1,200 people for The Warmth of Other Suns, a work that tells the epic story of the Great Migration, which lasted from 1915 to 1970 and changed the cultural and political landscape of the country.

Festival of African Films -- The 22nd annual Cascade Festival of African Films is now underway with more than 20 films shown through March 3 at three locations, the Moriarty Auditorium on the Portland Community College Cascade Campus in north Portland; The Hollywood Theatre, and McMenamins Kennedy School. For a complete schedule, go to africanfilmfestival.org.

Portland Jazz Festival -- The US Bank Portland Jazz Festival presented by Alaska Airlines continues through Sunday, Feb. 26 at venues throughout Portland. Entertainment includes an eclectic mix of internationally recognized and local musicians playing a wide range of jazz styles. For a complete schedule, visit pdxjazz.com.

Afrique Bistro Benefit -- Afrique Bistro, 102 N.E. Russell St., opens its doors each last Saturday of the month to raise donations for the African Women's Coalition. Great Caribbean and African music along with good drinks and fun people, 9 p.m. to 2:30 a.m. $10 at the door.

International Film Festival -- The Northwest Film Center premieres more than 100 international short and feature films to Portland audiences each February. For information on PIFF passes, tickets and more, visit nwfilm.org.

OMNIMAX: Flying Monsters -- For audiences of all ages, OMSI's new IMAX film, Flying Monsters, takes viewers to a prehistoric world. The world's leading naturalist Sir David Attenborough sets out to uncover the truth about the giant flying reptiles whose wingspans of up to 40 feet compare to that of a modern jet plane.

Body Worlds -- OMSI hosts the exhibit "Body Worlds and the Brain" for a limited engagement. The show deciphers the mystery and complexity of the human body and brain with more than 200 authentic human specimens, preserved through a revolutionary preservation method.

Norman Sylvester Band -- Boogie Cat Norman Sylvester and his band perform on Friday, Feb. 24 at 9 p.m. at Tillicum Bar and Grill; and on Saturday, Feb. 25 at Fat Tuesday's in Vancouver.

Mel Brown Live -- Portland jazz giant Mel Brown performs at Salty's on the Columbia every Friday and Saturday night. Known as the "Gentleman of Jazz," Brown has a career spanning over 40 years.

Live Jazz -- Every Friday and Saturday from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m., the Third Degrees Lounge at the River Place Hotel, 1510 S.W. Harbor Way. No cover or minimum purchase. For more information, visit pdxjazz.com.

Humor Night -- Awesome comedians perform stand-up, sketch, and more at the weekly Recurring Humor Night every Wednesday night at Tonic Lounge, 3100 N.E. Sandy Blvd. Pay as you wish, $3-5 donation suggested. Show is 21+.

Beaverton Art Exhibit Opens

The Beaverton Arts Commission is hosting art exhibits throughout February at Beaverton City Hall, 4755 S.W. Griffith Dr., featuring works by talented local artists. The works grace the first, second, and third floor corridors.

"This month's art display adds such vibrancy to City Hall," said Mayor Denny Doyle. "With the overcast skies associated with Oregon winters, it's great to have such beautiful art to brighten everyone's day. I enjoy seeing visitors slow down to take some time to interact with the art."

Beaverton City Hall is open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. All art works are for sale.
