Soul Train ReRun Tribute

Don Cornelius hosted and produced an awesome TV show for almost three decades. Every Saturday the Soul Train would roll into town on syndicated TV and bring American audiences the best in Soul and R & B, from Marvin Gaye to Chaka Khan to the Delfonics.

In honor of his untimely passing this year, Hollywood Theater's ReRun Theater presents a Soul Train Tribute with some of the best samples of this legendary show, including some of the amazing performances, Don Cornelius's ever changing hair style and of course those outrageous Afro Sheen commercials that sponsored the whole event.

You're invited to come down to the Hollywood Theatre, 4122 N.E. Sandy Blvd., on Monday, April 23 at 7:30 p.m. and get down to Soul Train's blasts from the past. Admission is $5.

Silent film is paired with improvised music from favorite operas on Friday the 13th at the Mission Theater.

Horror Classic Pairs with Opera

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde vs. Dr. Atomic" is the latest "Opera vs. Cinema" production by Opera Theater Oregon to pair silent films with improvised music.

This one-night-only Friday the 13th show brings "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" to the big screen with accompaniment inspired by the driving and explosively dramatic music of John Adams' opera "Doctor Atomic."

Pianist Douglas Schneider, percussionist Ian Kerr and tenor Daniel Buchanan will team up in a minimalist group improvisation to put a new twist on a classic tale.

Doors open at 6 p.m. and the show starts at 7 p.m. at The Mission Theater, 1624 N.W. Glisan St. Tickets are $12 at the door and $9 in advance.
