Focus on Film and Social Justice

The Portland Oregon Women's Film Festival (POWFest), the Hollywood Theatre and NW Documentary will host a reception and film screening of Force of Nature, a film that celebrates the life and work of progressive journalist Ellen Ratner.

Barbara Kopple

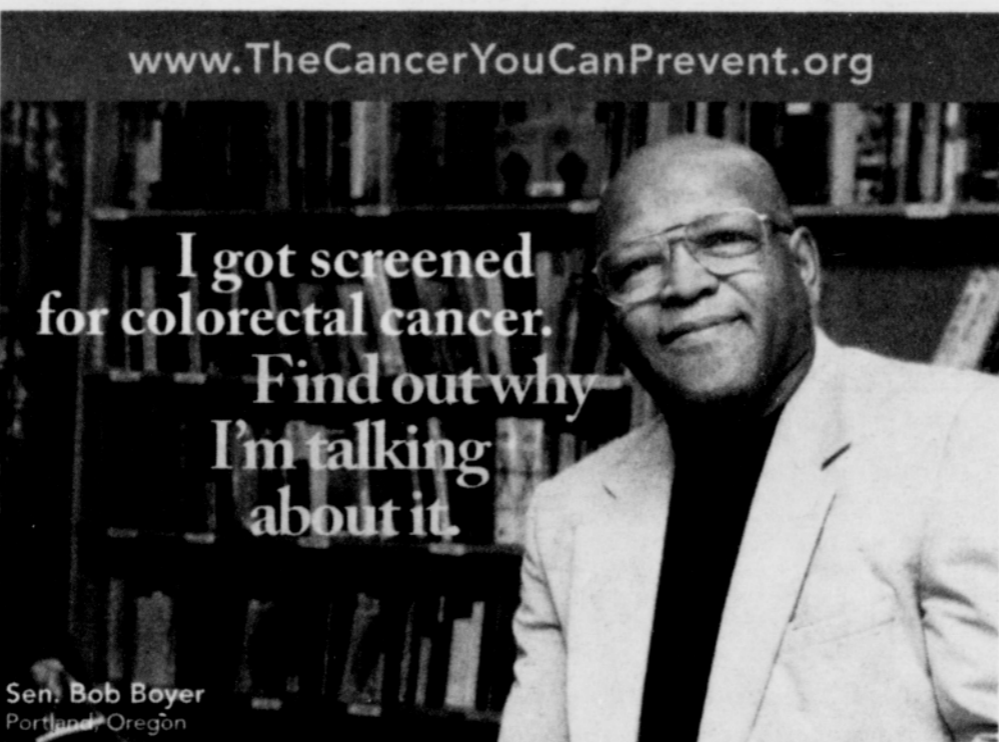

Barbara Kopple, the director of the documentary, will join Ratner, the White House correspondent and bureau chief for The Talk Radio Network, during a reception on Friday, May 4 at 4:30 p.m. at Magnolia's Corner, 4075 N.E. Sandy Blvd., followed at 7:30 p.m. by the screening of the documentary and a question and answer session at the Hollywood Theatre, 4122 N.E. Sandy Blvd.

Kopple is a renowned advocate of social justice and director of TV and film. Her long list of achievements include Shut Up and Sing, which tells the story of the Dixie Chicks and their response to the political fallout they faced after making comments critical of President Bush on the eve of the Iraq War.

Tickets can be obtained at powfest.com as well as the Hollywood Theatre box office.
