

SUMMER FUN GUIDE

King Farmers Market Returns

Portland Farmers Market and residents of north and northeast Portland celebrated the opening of the King Portland Farmers Market Sunday and the return of 35 vendors selling local farm-fresh produce, meats, cheeses, baked goods and other specialty foods.

The King Market season will continue every Sunday until Oct. 28 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at King School Park, located at Northeast Seventh Avenue and Wygant Street.

Throughout the season, King Market will organize activities like family-friendly kids cooking classes, educational information fairs, and barbeque fundraisers.

"We want King Market to not only bring healthy farm-fresh produce to residents of the Northeast, but also to serve as a vibrant community gathering that reflects the surrounding neighborhood," said Trudy Toliver, executive director of Portland Farmers Market.

As with all other Portland Farmers Market locations, King Market shoppers eligible for SNAP benefits will be able to receive $1 tokens for food purchases. Additionally, SNAP recipients can receive a dollar-for-dollar match up to $7 in tokens through Fresh Exchange, a program of Farmers Market Fund, at the King, Buckman and Northwest neighborhood markets.

Healthy farm-fresh produce draws shoppers to the King Portland Farmers Market at King School Park each Sunday, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. through Oct. 28.
