Football to Dancing Champ

(AP) — He already has a Super Bowl ring, and now football star Donald Driver can add the "Dancing With the Stars" mirror ball trophy to his awards collection.

The Green Bay Packers receiver won the ABC dance show last week after wowing audiences and judges with his kickin' country-themed freestyle routine. He and partner Peta Murgatroyd hoisted the glittery prize above their heads after being named the new "Dancing" champs.

Streamers and confetti rained down from the ceiling, filling the ballroom as they celebrated. Driver's wife and children joined him on the dance floor.

With just one point separating the three finalists, it was up to the viewers to pick the winner.

He and his fellow finalists, Welsh singer Katherine Jenkins and Cuban actor William Levy, each earned perfect scores for their last performances. Jenkins came into the final contest with a perfect 60 points; Driver and Levy each had 59.

Judges' scores combined with viewer votes determined the result.

Donald Driver and Peta Murgatroyd hold up their trophies after they were selected "Dancing with the Stars" champions.

KÚKÁTÓNÓN AFRICAN DANCE TROUPE

[ In June 2011, the African Messenger named Kúkátónón the best African dance troupe. ]

ANNUAL FUNDRAISER

The sounds of the powerful African drums rumble in the distance. A chant is called back and forth between the children. Drums and voices become a river of sound and the room is transformed into an African village.
