

SUMMER FUN GUIDE

University of Portland hosts the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta The Gondoliers, opening Friday, June 1 and continuing with performances through June 24 in Mago Hunt Center Theater on the university's north Portland campus.

Mock Crest Summer Theater

Gilbert and Sullivan's classic operetta, the Gondoliers, is this summer's presentation by Mock's Crest Productions, a summer professional theater company supported by the University of Portland.

The Gondoliers will be presented June 1-24 in Mago Hunt Center Theater on the UP campus, 5000 N. Willamette Blvd, with Thursday and Friday performances at 7:30 p.m., Saturday performances at 7:30 p.m., and Sunday performances at 2 p.m.

On Saturday, June 9, there will be an additional performance at 2 p.m. Tickets are $30 for adults and $25 for seniors, students, or groups of 10 or more.

All seats are reserved and must be ordered through the Mago Hunt Box Office by calling 503-943-7287.

Summer Reading Kick-off

The Beaverton City Library's summer reading program will kick off on Friday, June 1 with something for everyone.

"The library has put together some fun and interesting reading programs that are sure to keep our minds active this summer," said Mayor Denny Doyle. "With programs for all ages, everyone in the community has a chance to participate, win some prizes and discover some great books."

Children and teens may sign up to read for 15 hours, and earn prizes.

"The summer reading program is not only a fun way to track your reading and earn prizes, it's also a great way for students to develop their reading skills while avoiding summer reading loss," said Ed House, library director.
