Independence Day at Fort Vancouver. Presented by Bank of America, the annual celebration promises a full day of family fun with live music, games, entertainment and a spectacular fireworks show.

July 4th Celebration at Fort Vancouver Entertainment kicks off at Noon

Independence Day at Fort Vancouver presented by Bank of America takes place on Wednesday, July 4th the Fort Vancouver National Site.

Families will find a full schedule of activities, culminating with an impressive fireworks show. The event is produced by the nonprofit Fort Vancouver National Trust.

Fort Vancouver has a 48 year history of providing the community with an exceptional fireworks display. Using state of the art fireworks synchronized to music, this year's display will once again be launched from Pearson Air Field, providing attendees an exciting fireworks show. Fireworks may not be visible from Portland or the Columbia River.

Gates open at 8 a.m. with the entertainment kicking off at Noon, The Kids' Patriotic Parade presented by Fred Meyer begins at 4 p.m. and the spectacular fireworks show launches at 10:05 p.m.

The Vancouver Toyota Main Stage features a wide variety of local and regionally recognized entertainers, including Patrick Lamb and Hit Machine.

General admission is $5 in advance and $7 at the gate for those 13 and over. Kids 12 and under are free. Purchase tickets online at fortvan.org/fourth or at any southwest Washington Fred Meyer location.
