Homegoing Service

Dorothy Davis

Dorothy Mae Davis, 57, of Portland, died Monday, June 18, 2012 after six years of battling metastatic breast cancer.

She was born June 30, 1954 in San Bernardino, Calif. to Joe and Emma Davis. She spent her life serving others with unconditional love and acceptance, leaving a lasting impression on everyone who came to know her.

Ms. Davis epitomized the definition of selflessness, always putting others first, especially her children. She was very compassionate with a big heart for young people, often taking in other children whose home environments were less ideal. While Dorothy only had two children, she was a surrogate mother to countless others. She worked for the Department of Human Services as a caregiver for many years until she was unable to do so due to health.

She is survived by two sons, Aubré and Aaron Dickson of Portland; three grandsons, Caleb, Eric, and Christian; nine brothers, seven sisters; many nephews, nieces and cousins; and countless friends whose hearts are permanently etched with love and adoration.

Viewing will take place at Terry Family Funeral Home, 2337 N. Williams Ave., on Thursday, June 28 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. A Homegoing service will be held Friday, June 29 at 11 a.m. at Maranatha Church of God, 4222 N.E. 12th Ave., with another viewing prior to service from 10 a.m.-11 a.m.

In lieu of flowers and gifts, the family asks that donations may be made to the Dorothy Davis Benefit Memorial Fund at Wells Fargo Bank.
