Nominated for Two Emmys

The Academy of Television Arts & Sciences has honored the IFC comedy Portlandia with two Emmy nominations.

The TV series is on the ballot for outstanding directing for a variety series and outstanding writing for a variety series. The series previously won a 2011 Emmy award for outstanding costumes, and a 2011 Peabody Award.

Created and written by Fred Armisen, Carrie Brownstein and Jonathan Krisel, Portlandia welcomes viewers to a romanticized and dreamy portrayal of Portland.

"We are honored the show has been recognized with these Emmy nominations," said Krisel. "It is a privilege to be part of the conversation. We'd also like to extend our thanks to the city of Portland, which has embraced and championed the show in a way that I think none of us could have imagined."

Carrie Brownstein and Fred Armisen star in the TV comedy series Portlandia.
