Last Tuesday Summer Concert

Join your neighbors and friends at the New Seasons' Beaverton Last Tuesday summertime concert series presented by the Beaverton Arts Commission. On July 31, Patrick Lamb will perform at The Round Fountain Plaza, adjacent to the Beaverton Central light rail station, from 5-8 p.m.

Nominated for a Grammy in 2007, Lamb's music is steeped in Southern blues and jazz. He has performed with groups that opened for BB King and played with G.C. Cameron, formerly with the Temptations.

"Patrick Lamb's energy and talent promises to captivate the crowd at Beaverton Last Tuesday," said Mayor Denny Doyle. "These popular performances at The Round help build community by bringing us together."

Painted Sky/Northstar Dance Company, honoring Native American culture, will also perform.

Beaverton Last Tuesday is made possible thanks to support from New Seasons Market, Pepita's Mexican Cuisine, The Round, Artisan Renovations, The Oregonian, Beaverton Arts Foundation, Beaverton Arts Commission and the city of Beaverton.

Parking is available off of Southwest Cedar Hills Boulevard at Westgate Drive in the former Westgate Theater lot.
