Soapbox Derby at Mt. Tabor

The mission of the PDX Adult Soapbox Derby is "keeping the kid in us all." The 16th annual race returns to Mt. Tabor Park in southeast Portland on Saturday, Aug. 18. Competition starts at 10 a.m. with races continuing through 4 p.m.

A grass-roots event that's dedicated to camaraderie, competition and community, the derby is known for bringing out thousands of people for a perfect picnic day.

"Once a year a brave group of racers convene on the daunting slopes of Mt. Tabor to test their metal to their mettle. We thank our beloved volcano for allowing us to tickle her spine," organizers said.

Mt. Tabor is a 600-foot hill containing the remnants of an extinct volcano, the only inner city volcano in the U.S.

There will be a few vendors in the park for the derby, but most folks are advised to pack food and beverages. Beer and wine are allowed, but no hard alcohol. All pets must be on leash.
