

“Go-anywhere”
fares coming September 1

Fare zones will soon be a thing of the past. TriMet is changing to a one-fare system where all of your trips cost the same. With one fare, you can go anywhere.

Activists Plan Coal Protest

Antonella Mancini of north Portland paints a sign to protest proposed coal shipments from Montana and Wyoming that would bring open coal train cars and barges through Portland to Asia markets. A ‘no coal’ rally will be held Saturday, Aug. 18 at noon at the St. Johns Railroad Cut, near the Peninsula Fred Meyer on North Lombard Street.

Ceasefire

Young, lively, curious children are at your home and can come in contact with a gun; someone in your family or a friend or neighbor is suffering from depression and the gun poses a risk of injury or suicide; the firearm cannot be properly stored; the gun was left by an earlier occupant of the house; you can't guarantee that someone else won't get the gun; you want to do something to reduce the number of gun accidents and homicides; you understand that a gun in the home is much more likely to kill or injure a family member or friend that it is to protect you; and you would rather have a gift certificate than the gun.
