Mariel Zagunis carries the stars and stripes as the official Flag Bearer for 2012 Games in London. The Beaverton resident is Grand Marshal of Saturday's Beaverton Celebration Parade.

Beaverton Parade Honors Olympian

The 55th annual Beaverton Celebration Parade will follow a new route on Saturday, Sept. 8 starting at 10 a.m.

This year's grand marshals will be local Olympians, including Mariel Zagunis, a two-time gold medalist fencer and team USA's opening ceremonies flag bearer.

The parade begins at the corner of Southwest Wilson Avenue and Allen Boulevard. It then takes Erickson Avenue to 5th Street, passing by the Beaverton City Library. The parade ends at Griffith Park near Beaverton City Hall.

The Beaverton Celebration Parade features floats, award-winning marching bands, mascots and more. The parade theme is The Many Faces of Beaverton, which was created by Beaverton resident Laurette McGee.
