Johnson Scholarship Fund Grows

Leaders from the local African-American community recently gathered at Concordia University in northeast Portland for the Sam and Opal Johnson Memorial Scholarship Fund banquet.

In 1981, the Rev. Sam Johnson and his wife Opal Johnson and Wilmar Elliot, established a scholarship fund to honor their vision in providing educational opportunities for those young and old residing in north and northeast Portland. Since then, scholarship fund has assisted more than 200 students in financial need attend a two-year, four-year or vocational institution.

Through the continued efforts of the Rev. Dr. W. G. Hardy, Jr., senior pastor of the Highland Christian Center, the scholarship continues to grow and benefit students in the wider metro area. For more information, call Lessie Williams at 503-287-9567, extension 202.

In Loving Memory

Barbara Leonard

Barbara Jean Hill Leonard was born Jan. 8, 1947 to the union of Ernest Hill Jr. and the late Estella Hill in Portland. Our Lord and Savior called her home on Oct. 5, 2012. Barbara graduated from Girls Polytechnic in 1964 and later attended the University of Oregon where she graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

She started at Pacific Northwest Bell (now Century Link) in college and worked until she retired in 1998. She then took on the position of telephone systems trainer consultant for three years.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory, husband Ben Leonard, son Duayne White, daughter Serena Ashley (Andre'), two step-daughters, her father Ernest Hill Jr., brother Ernest Hill III, foster sister Brenda Moon, an uncle and aunt, 13 grandchildren, and 4 great-grandchildren. She also leaves several nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends.

Her funeral will be at 11 a.m. on Thursday, Oct. 11 at Maranatha Church, 4222 N.E. 12th Ave. Viewing will be at Ross Hollywood Funeral Chapel on Wednesday, Oct. 10, from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m., as well as two hours prior to the funeral service.

Scholarship donations can be sent to Portland Chapter of The Links, Inc. in Barbara's memory. Please sign the online guest book at rosshollywoodfuneralchapel.com
