Classic Fright and a Puppet Murder

Exploring the depths of sanity, morality and murder... with puppets! Tears of Joy Theatre presents Edgar Allan Poe's The Tell-Tale Heart, each Friday and Saturday, Oct. 19 through Oct. 28 at Portland State University in the Lincoln Studio. Performances are at 8 pm.

Adapted from Edgar Allan Poe's infamous short horror story, this mature production recommended for ages 10 and up, blends live actors, mask and life-sized puppets. Three hooded operators bring to life the Old Man, a wonderfully bony and decrepit looking life-sized puppet. The old man's caretaker, played by a live actor, continuously affirms his sanity as he fixates on the old man's eye, descending into madness and finally murder.

You're invited to watch this tale of a madman and see what lies at the bottom of his heart.

Admission is $14 for students and $17 for adults. A special performance will take place Thursday, Oct. 26 at 8 p.m. with $5 tickets for all PSU students. For tickets, call 503-248-0557 or visit tojt.org.
