Pottery Works Explore Forms

The Mt. Hood Community College Visual Arts Gallery will present a ceramics exhibition titled "Art of the Potter," Monday, Oct. 22 through Nov. 19, featuring the works of more than 20 artists.

While the focus is primarily on pots, the exhibit will also showcase ceramic works that investigate forms beyond the traditional vessel. All the participating artists have received their Master of Arts or Master of Fine Arts degrees and most reside within the Portland area.

A reception will be held in the Visual Arts Gallery, Oct. 30, from 5:30 - 8:30 p.m. Gallery hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The exhibit and reception are free and open to the public.

Mourning in America Tour

Rhymesayers recording artist Brother Ali will perform at the Hawthorne Theatre Saturday, Oct. 20 as part of his Mourning in America tour.

Ali will be accompanied by his new band, Blank Tape Beloved, a five piece ensemble that incorporates Jake One's thundering drums with a powerhouse horn section, keys and guitar.

Fully recharged and inspired by his eye-opening first trip to Mecca, the 2011 uprisings in the Middle East, and the worldwide Occupy movements, Brother Ali will unveil his fourth full-length offering Mourning in America and Dreaming in Color.

Created during a self-imposed two-month exile in Seattle and helmed by platinum-selling producer Jake One (50 Cent, T.I., Wiz Khalifa), the album presents a scathing yet honest critique of America and its many flaws while simultaneously presenting a hopeful outlook of its possibilities.
