Soulful Take on Christmas Classics

(AP) — Just call CeeLo Green music's newest Santa Claus. The 38-year-old singer-rapper is working on a Christmas album that he promises is "the real deal." Green said in a recent interview that the album, "CeeLo's Magic Moment," is a "soulful take on a host of Christmas classics." Among the tunes to be included on the Elektra Records album are "Silent Night," "The Christmas Song," "This Christmas," "You're a Mean One Mr. Grinch" and "White Christmas." Rod Stewart, B.o.B. and Straight No Chaser are among the featured artists. Green's Christmas album will be released Oct. 30.

In Fond Memory

Edgar 'Big Ed' Burton

(Paxton). He is survived by his sons Michael and Chailen Burton; sisters Edwina Burton-Gonzalez, Audrey Burton and Giselda Maria Burton; grandchildren Michael Dru, Michael Keandre, Jaryia Monte, Jamara Elisha, Mikayla Charlotte and Janiya Chailey; plus a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and family members.

Edgar "Big Ed" Ross Burton Jr. was called home by our Lord God on Sept. 12, 2012.

He was born on April 8, 1949 in Portland, the son of Edgar Sr. and Nona Burton. He graduated from Lincoln High School in 1967. In January 1969, he was united in marriage with Charlotte Jean Simpson of Beaumont, Texas.

He built a career as a Longshoreman and was a standing member of the International Longshoreman & Warehouse Union. He previously held positions with Northwest Natural Gas, ESCO Steel Manufacturing Corp. and the City of Portland. As an entrepreneur, he also owned and operated an automobile detailing company.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife; brothers Buford, Larry and Frank; and a sister, Helen Burton

He will be missed by all who knew and loved him. He will always be remembered for his kind and loving spirit, his cheerful nature and for his love of sports and delighting in watching and cheering for his grandchildren as they participated in their athletic events.

'Big Ed' loved his family and friends and he also loved the Lord. We can all rest assured in knowing that he is now in the house of the Lord with loved ones, family and friends who have preceded him.

A memorial celebration to commemorate his life will be held at Bradford's Sports Bar, 10346 N.E. Halsey St., on Sunday, Oct. 28 at 2 p.m.

In Loving Memory

A service was held Sunday, Oct. 15, at the Muslim Community Center in Portland for Muhammad Saleem Abdullah (Elvin McKenzie), who died Oct. 11, 2012, at the age of 77. He was preceded in death by his parents; wife; brothers Buford, Larry and Frank; and a sister, Helen Burton

Muhammad was born March 27, 1935 in Dallas, Texas, to Elvin and Lucretia McKenzie. He was the only child born to this union. At an early age he moved to Portland, Oregon. Muhammad loved music and played tenor sax. He played many sessions at Knott Street Center. He served in the United States Army for three years. On October 14, 1956 he married Billie J. Graham, and they had four daughters.

Preceding him in death are mother, dad, grandmother, Daisy, daughter Cynthia, and step sister, Deloris Barr.

He is survived by his children's mother, Billie, his children, Rhonda, Sharon, Tracy, half sister Jean Gilmore, half brothers Edwin and Eric of Calif., step sisters Lena Sanford of Bellevue, Wash. and Yvonne Broudreux of Calif., seven grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
