Beloved, Magical Tale

Revel in the enchantment of the holiday season in the sparkling forest of Shakespeare's most beloved, magical tale. Portland Center Stage's production of A Midsummer Night's Dream is now playing through Dec. 23.

"It's a perfect play," says director Penny

Metropulos. "It has so much joy and truth, it's perfect in every way."

Tickets start at $39, with discounts available for students and those under 25. Visit pcs.org or call 503-445-3700.

Gospel Concert to Fight Violence

Emmanuel Temple hosts holiday benefit

The community is invited to join an evening of music, arts, inspiration, and sharing through an extraordinary holiday benefit concert, Friday, Nov. 23, at Emmanuel Temple Church, 1033 N. Sumner. Doors open at 6 p.m.

The headline artist is Eric Carrington of Houston Texas, a nationally recognized Urban Gospel contemporary musician. Portland local Jazz Saxophonist, Eldon T. Jones and Northwest Poet and musician Jacqueline M. Echols will perform as well. Evangelist Rochelle Jones of Seattle will lead praise and worship. Additional drama and music sets will complete the evening.

The concert will support efforts to stop gang violence and promote a dialog on the importance of stopping gang violence in our communities and neighborhoods. Proceeds go to support Emmanuel
