A Spin on Good Company

The Northwest Dance Project presents "In Good Company," Friday, Dec. 7 through Dec. 16 at the Northwest Dance Project Studio and Performance Center, 833 N Shaver St. and Mississippi Avenue.

Tickets are $30 in advance at nwdanceproject.org or call 503-828-8285.

Inspired and danced to vintage records, the project's choreographic creations are set to such tunes as "Big Spender," Benny Goodman, classic rock from Queen, "Time Warp," and much, much more.

Portland favorite DJ Anjali will be behind the decks at each show, spinning the records as the dancers perform these wonderful and whimsical new works. This is a family-friendly show, all ages are welcome and sure to enjoy.

Beaverton Ushers in Holidays

You're invited to celebrate the holiday season at Beaverton's annual Tree Lighting Ceremony and Holiday Open House on Friday, Dec. 7 from 5 to 7 p.m. Activities begin at 5 p.m. inside Beaverton City Library, 12375 S.W. 5th St., followed by the tree lighting program at 6 p.m. across the street in Beaverton City Park.

"This annual community tradition brings our families, friends and neighbors closer together during a very special time of year," said Mayor Doyle. "I invite everyone to join us as we create some cherished holiday memories at this family-friendly event."

Attendees will have a chance to visit with Santa and Mrs. Claus, and take in performances by the Beaverton Community Band and the city's staff choir. Children and their families can participate in activities, games and a holiday craft workshop.
