

It takes one mind to have a dream, and many hands to shape it.

It has been 50 years since Martin Luther King Jr. shared his vision for a gentler, more harmonious world. Today, his words continue to inspire us all.

At Providence, we're proud to be part of our Portland communities, as a caregiver and an employer. We believe every life touches all those around it. And the best way to fulfill a dream is to share it for a lifetime.

Life's most urgent question is: What are you doing for others?
