Fire Displaces Students

Students displaced by a devastating fire early Sunday morning at Crestline Elementary School in Vancouver will go back to class on Thursday and spend the rest of the school year at five other elementary schools, school district officials announced Monday.

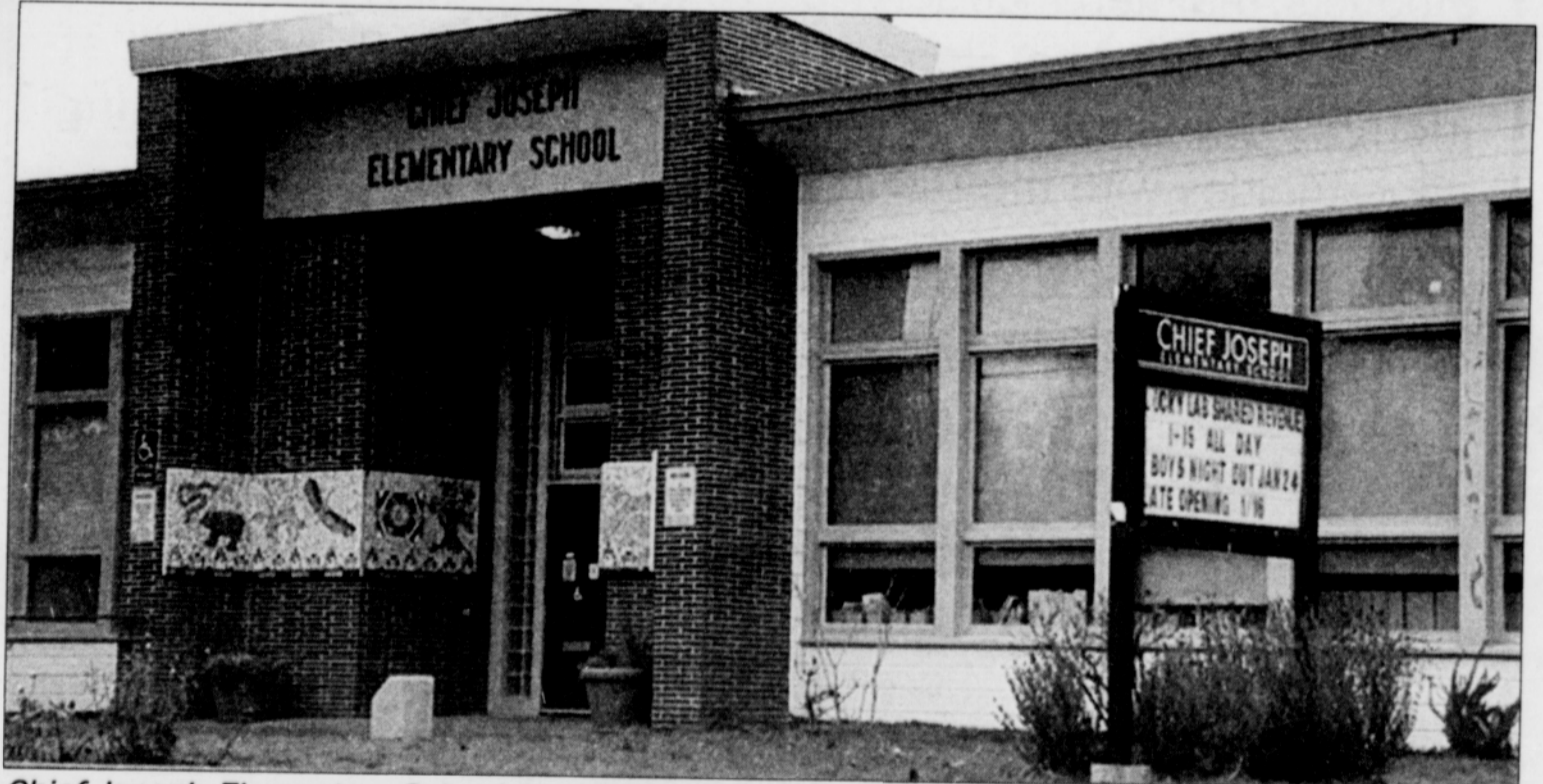

Teachers and some 500 students were left without a school after the 3:17 a.m. fire completely destroyed the building. Firefighters from Vancouver and Portland battled the burning building at 13003 S.E. Seventh St.

One firefighter was treated at a local hospital and released. There were no reports of any other injuries.

Investigators have not been able to determine the

Chief Joseph Tops Closure List

Lastest plan gets a cold shoulder from parents

A packed auditorium of parents and students at a Portland School Board meeting Monday night protested against a plan to merge Chief Joseph Elementary into Ockley Green Elementary, two north Portland schools.

Superintendent Carole Smith made the recommendation as part of the district's latest plan to bolster programs at local schools by balancing enrollment in the cluster of
