Art of Carrie Mae Weems

plex picture of humanity and creating greater awareness and compassion for difference.

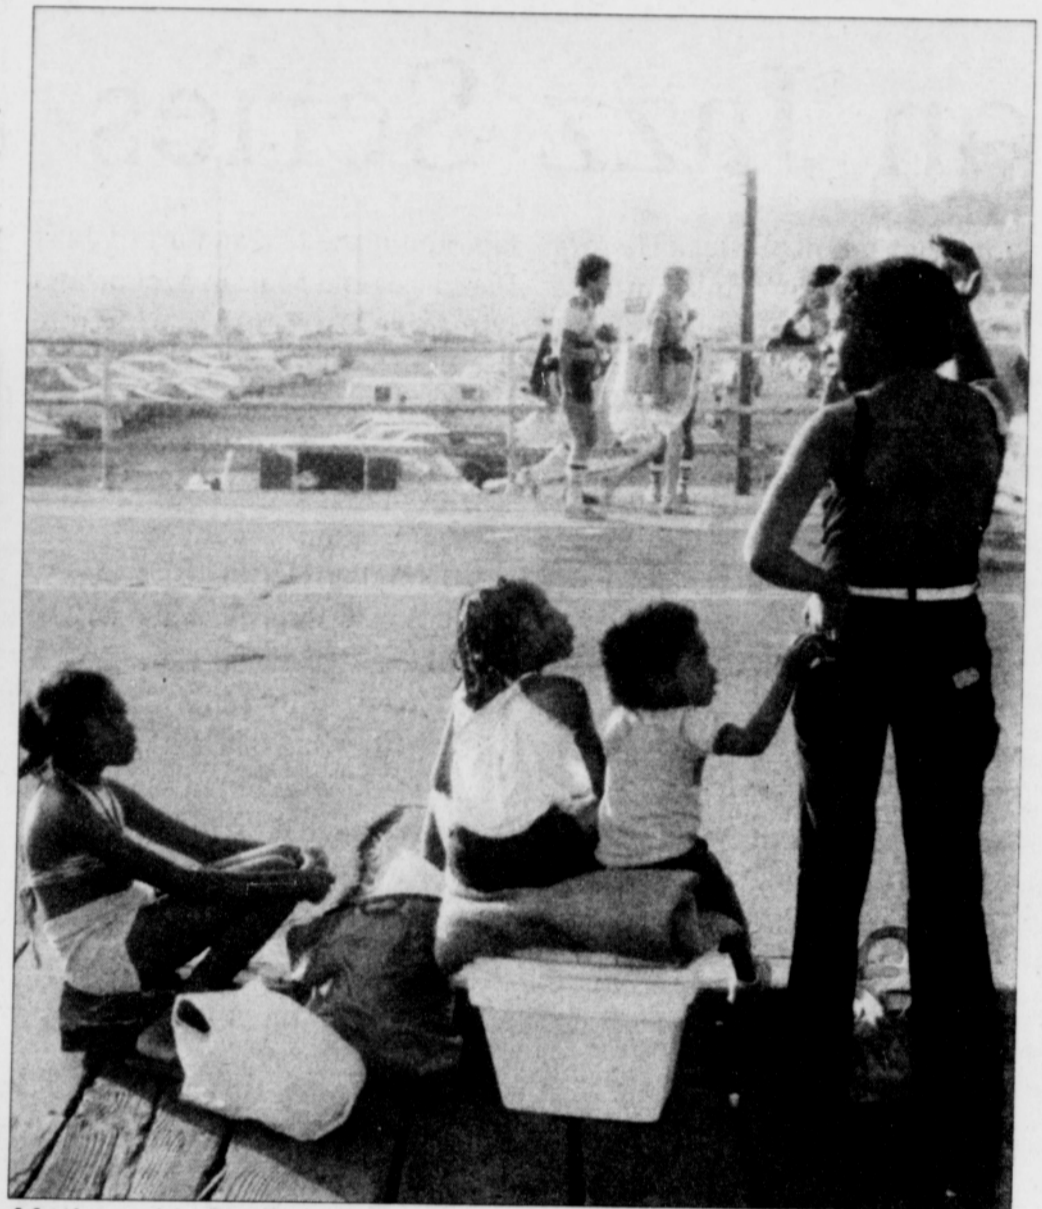

The exhibit features some of her most groundbreaking work, including Ain't Jokin', From Here I Saw

Carrie Mae Weems

What Happened and I Cried, Ritual and Revolution, and the recent series Constructing History: A Requiem to Mark the Moment.

This is not the first time that the Portland Art Museum has featured Mother with Children from the Boardwalk of Santa Monica is a photograph from the early 1980s by acclaimed Portland artist Carrie Mae Weems.

Weems' photography. In 1994, the museum presented an early exhibition of the artist's work. This earlier exhibition, Carrie Mae Weems, was organized by the National Museum of Women in the Arts.

The current retrospective will engage audiences in discussions of the African-American experience through art.

Richard Dance III

A homecoming celebration and funeral for Richard Alexander Dance III will be held Monday, Feb. 18 at 11 a.m. at Finley-Sunset Hills Mortuary, 6801 S.W. Sunset Hwy.

He was born on May 9, 1984 to Yvette and Richard on Mother's Day. Everyone commented on how beautiful baby Ricky was and he grew up to be a beautiful and a plentiful source of joy for his family and friends.

At 15, he accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his savior at the Upper Room Home Church. On Feb. 8, 2013, his family released him to go home with God.

Well known by his rapper persona "Rick Deez," he enjoyed producing music, entertaining, family outings, and friends.

Ricky leaves his parents and three brothers behind, along with a tremendous amount of family and friends. He will live forever in our minds and hearts due to his non judgmental eyes, infectious, generous smile, compassionate soul, and a brave heart full of confidence.
