Photos of Wartime Resistance

The Oregon Jewish Museum, 1953 N.W. Kearney St., presents Pictures of Resistance: The Wartime Photographs of Jewish Partisan Faye Schulman, opening Wednesday, Feb. 27 with a reception from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.;

Photographer Faye Schulman, a member of the resistance to the Nazi occupation of Eastern Europe, with a group of old friends in the forest near Lenin, Poland in 1944.

and the exhibit continuing through April 24.

Schulman is the only known Jewish partisan photographer to take photos of the Jewish partisan resistance in Eastern Europe during World War II.

Born in Lenin, Poland, she was introduced to photography at the age of 10 by her older brother, who ran the town's only photography studio.

In 1941, German troops occupied eastern Poland. As the only remaining photographer in the area, Faye's skills made her valuable to the Nazis, and her life was spared.
