Kids take off in search of candy eggs during the Oregon Zoo's annual spring celebration, Rabbit Romp. This year's event takes place Saturday, March 30, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Zoo Egg Hunt Festivities

A celebration of spring takes place Saturday, March 30 when the Oregon Zoo hosts its annual Rabbit Romp. Sponsored in part by the Oregon College Savings Plan, the event features candy egg hunts every 20 minutes between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Children ages 3 to 10 are divided into age groups and invited to hunt for eggs filled with candy and prizes. Toddlers 2 and under can participate in a candy hunt organized especially for them. Guests should bring their own baskets to collect the eggs. Rabbit Romp festivities also include pettable bunnies at the Family Farm, bunny crafts, games and photo opportunities. Rabbit Romp is free with regular zoo admission.

Summer Day Camps

Sign up now for fun activities

Portland Parks & Recreation can help your child build social skills, confidence, make new friends and have fun. Registration is now available for summer camps across the city, with something for everyone from tots to teens. The camps will help keep your youngsters active in both mind and body, and they'll come home tired! There are oodles of options including environmental education, creative play, music, science, sports and gymnastics, arts & crafts, martial arts, stories, special events, day trips, cooking, fashion, skateboarding and much more. Learn about cultures around the world, take a trip to the coast to handle starfish, visit a working farm, give fencing a stab, learn about dinosaurs, or try out a tumbling and trampoline camp. Be a pirate for a day, take the stage in a musical theater production, grow food for your own pizza and learn what's healthy for you, shoot hoops, swim, splash, and have a blast. Turn off the tube and sign up now! For more information, call 503-823-5300 or visit portlandparks.org.
