'The Diner' by Gabriel Fernandez

Show Explores Everyday Objects

The Fireplace Gallery at Mt. Hood Community College hosts a free art exhibit this month, "Inside Out," featuring works by Gabriel Fernandez.

Fernandez's art is an interpretation of everyday objects in our world, but slowed down to portray a particular scene. He has explored nostalgia, personas of inanimate objects and moods through realism, color, composition and texture. He has exhibited his art all over the West Coast.

The Fireplace Gallery is located in the Student Union on the Gresham Campus.

Ultimate Adventures for Kids

Registration is now open for Mt. Hood Community College's Summer Adventure Camp for kids 7 to 16 years old.

During each one-week camp, kids will have an opportunity to participate in activities such as rock climbing, swimming, board games, arts and crafts, science projects and many group activities.

"The Adventure Camp turns kids' ordinary summer into an extraordinary adventure with experiences they usually wouldn't get to do," says Katie Heilsberg, the MHCC Aquatic Center's program assistant who oversees the camp.

All camp days are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., with the first 5-day session beginning June 17 and the last on Aug. 19. The cost is $175.

For more information, call Katie Heilsberg at 503-491-7241 or email katie.heilsberg@mhcc.edu.
