Athlete grows support for Australia trip

De La Salle North Catholic junior Mariah Agnew has been invited to spend a week this summer participating in Australia's Down Under International Games. She would represent Oregon on the West Central Conference Volleyball Team.

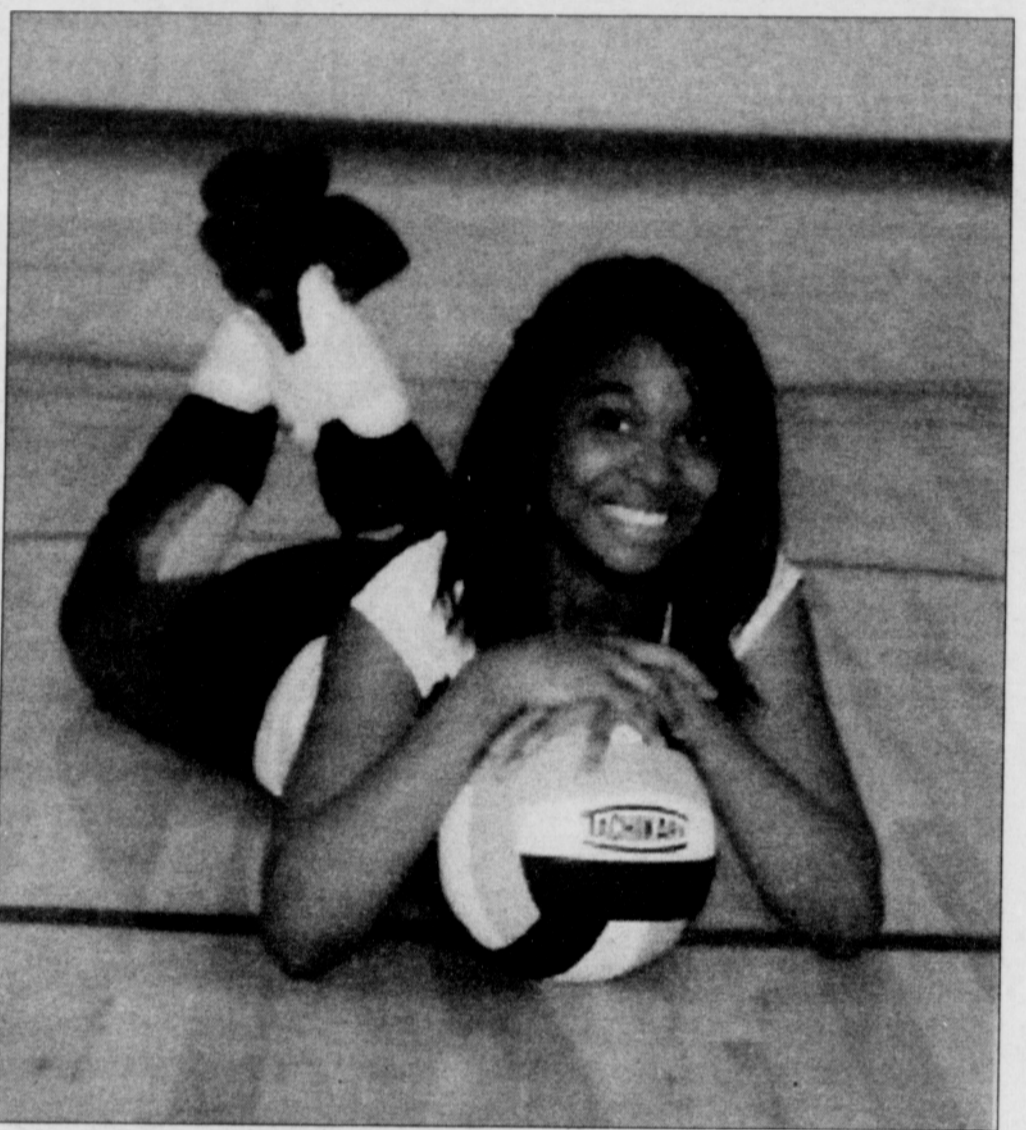

Agnew, the most valuable player for her high school team this year, and a second team all-state player in volleyball, is asking for community support to pay her expected expenses of $5,000.

The young athlete said the Australia trip would be a powerful experience for her future. She hopes attending the tournament will open opportunity to get noticed by college coaches and attain a scholarship.

"It will mean so much to me and I will appreciate all of those who help me out on this spectacular experience," she said.

Agnew plans to attend the University of Oregon to play volleyball. It is also her goal to make it to the Olympics.

(AP) -- Gary Payton is among this year's inductees for the Basketball Hall of Fame.

In addition to his nine All-Star Game selections, Payton was a nine-time NBA All-Defensive Team selection and 1996 Defensive Player of the Year during a 17-year career with Seattle, Milwaukee, the Lakers, Boston and Miami.

He averaged 16.3 points and ended his career ranked fourth all-time in steals with 2,445 and eight in assists with 8,966. A two-time Olympic gold medal winner (1996 and 2000), Payton won an NBA championship with the Heat in 2006.

"When I started playing basketball in the NBA, I just wanted to be a guy in the NBA doing something," said Payton on Monday. "When I started getting better I never believed I would be in the Hall of Fame. I never thought I'd be at this level right now."

Prior to his NBA career, Payton was Sports Illustrated's National Player of the Year in 1990 while at Oregon State. He still holds the school records for points, assists and steals.
