Love of Trees with Author

Portland Audubon will welcome author Phyllis Reynolds for a free Arbor Month celebration of the trees of our community.

Reynolds has recently totally updated and republished her classic work from 1993, Trees of Greater Portland, a guide to the most exceptional individual tree specimens in the Portland area, complete with many color photos and nine suggested tree walks in Portland.

The celebration will be held at the Audubon Society's Heron Hall visitor's center at 5151 N.W. Cornell Rd. on Saturday, April 27 at 3 p.m.

A native Portlander, Phyllis is a graduate of the now Catlin Gabel

Phyllis Reynolds

School and the University of Minnesota. She has served on the Urban Forestry Commission and was the head of their Heritage Tree Committee.
