Cinco de Mayo Weekend

Get set Portland for Latino culture with authentic food, rides, family fun and more.

The 29th annual Cinco de Mayo Festival takes off Friday, May 3 and continues through Sunday, May 5 at Waterfront Park, downtown. Admission is $8 for adults and $4 for children and seniors.

The event is presented by the Portland Guadalajara Sister City Association, a non-profit group dedicated to promoting Latino culture, arts, education, economic and intercultural partnerships, and goodwill between the cities of Portland and Guadalajara.

Portland's Cinco de Mayo festival at Waterfront Park runs Friday, May 3 through Sunday, May 5.

Visitors enjoy a close encounter with Zuwadi the lion at the Oregon Zoo's Predators of the Serengeti exhibit. Kids can learn about wildlife and safety Thursday, May 4 during the zoo's annual Safe Kids Day.

Safety Safari at the Zoo

You don't need superpowers to be a "safety hero" this summer. On Saturday, May 4, the Oregon Zoo will host its 15th annual Safe Kids Day, sponsored by Safe Kids Portland Metro and American Medical Response.

This year's theme, "Be a Safety Hero," will focus on simple actions that can save lives — like wearing bicycle helmets, life jackets and seat belts. Safe Kids Day activities run from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. and are free with zoo admission.

A dozen stations around the zoo will make up a "safety safari," with activities for kids and safety information for the whole family. Every child who completes the safari receives a safety-related prize.
