

Studio

The site boasts an impressive space of 25 foot by 35 foot studio, which not only affords him the proper space to capture pictures of individuals and groups of up to 50 people, but 360 degree prints of automobiles and cycles as well.

Harris knows something about showcasing cars. He has been the owner of several classics, including a '66 GTO, a '67 Cutlass 442, and a '72 Nova. His latest classic he gets behind the wheel of is a '56 Dodge Coronet.

Harris also plans to outfit the new location for photographs of your family pets, specializing in competitive dog and, cats.

"This is the culmination of more than 30 years of photography passion," Harris said. "I am finally blessed to offer it all under one roof!" he added.

In preparation for his special Mother's Day photo sessions, Harris is asking customers to contact him as soon as possible.

You can call Harris Photography for reservations and get appointment information at 503-730-1156.
