Memorial Scholarships Awarded

The annual Jennie T. Kemp Memorial Scholarships were awarded last month at Community A.M.E. Zion Church in Vancouver.

The scholarship fund, established in 2006, is a tribute to the late Sister Jennie T. Kemp, who had a passion for education and African-American history.

To date, 38 individuals pursuing a degree or advanced vocational training have received financial assistance. The 2013 scholarship award recipients are Kymbreanna Elliott, who is pursuing a political science degree, and Tracey D. Torrence, who plans to become a health communications specialist.

New Hope Welcomes New Pastor
