The playground program at Evergreen Park along the Fourth Plain corridor in Vancouver will continue to provide daily activities for children in the neighborhood thanks to community contributions.

Summer Play Saved

Community steps up to keep park program

The Evergreen Park Summer Playground program that helps Vancouver's Fourth Plain area residents take back their park is now fully funded for summer thanks to tremendous community support. The Vancouver-Clark Parks and Recreation program, which receives no city funding, helps local families through healthy, safe, hands-on activities that create a posi-
