tive presence at an inner city park where the alternative might be more crime or gang activity.

"The generosity of our local businesses and donors is remarkable," Cheri Martin, executive director of the Parks Foundation. "This park program in particular makes such a difference in the lives of kids and families living in Vancouver's inner city," she said.

Corporate donations from the United Way, Comcast, Beaches Restaurant, WalMart and the Audigy Group provided $13,000 in support for the program. A plea from Mayor Leavitt at the March 20 State of the City Address followed by a feature story in the Columbian, prompted several generous additional individual donations.

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

METRO SUSTAINABILITY CENTER
WATER RESOURCE AND ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES
RFP 13-2420

The Sustainability Center Department of Metro, a metropolitan service district organized under the laws of the State of Oregon and the Metro Charter, located at 600 NE Grand Avenue, Portland, OR 97232-2736, is hereby requesting sealed proposals for water resource and environmental services.

Sealed proposals are due no later than close of business, June 19, 2013, in Metro's business offices at 600 NE Grand Avenue, Portland, OR 97232-2736, Attention: Sharon Stiffler, Procurement Analyst, RFP 13-2420.

The primary intent of this RFP is to provide Metro with a list of qualified firms that would be under contract to provide 'on-call' water resource and environmental services. Using this RFP, it is anticipated that multiple proposers in each of the two categories of service will be selected Bidding documents/Proposals can be viewed and downloaded at Metro's website <http://www.oregonmetro.gov>, click on "Doing Business With", then "Requests for Bids and Proposal".

Metro may accept or reject any or all bids, in whole or in part, or waive irregularities not affecting substantial rights if such action is deemed in the public interest.

Metro extends equal opportunity to all persons and specifically encourages minority, women-owned and emerging small businesses to access and participate in this and all Metro projects, programs and services.

Metro and its contractors will not discriminate against any person(s), employee or applicant for employment based on race, creed, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, religion, physical handicap, political affiliation or martial status. Metro fully complies with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and related statutes and regulations in all programs and activities. For more information, or to obtain a Title VI Complaint Form, see www.oregonmetro.gov.
