Portland's Traveling Lantern Theater Company will present performances for children in the lobby of the Artists Repertory Theater off Southwest Alder Street each Saturday morning beginning Saturday, Aug. 17.

Saturday Morning Kids Theater

As part of a new partnership with the long-established and well-reputed Traveling Lantern Theatre Company, Artists Repertory Theatre will present performances for children in its Alder lobby each Saturday starting Aug 17.

The interactive theatre performances for children will be produced by Traveling Lantern and performed every Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m. These family-friendly performances will run approximately 45 minutes and include a Q&A with the cast afterward.

Tickets are only $5 for all who attend over 5 years old, and can be purchased at the door or at artistsrep.org. Performances are scheduled through the end of the year.

"We're very happy to welcome Traveling Lantern and its repertory of shows to Artists Rep. With this partnership, we are able to open our doors every week of the year to young children and their families. I'm excited to share the experience with my own kids on Saturday mornings," said Dámaso Rodríguez, Artists Rep's artistic director.

Based in Portland, Traveling Lantern has been educating and entertaining children nationwide for more than 25 years. Since 2004 it has been led by professional actors KB Mercer and Doren Elias.

The New York Public Library and Yosemite National Park are Traveling Lantern's largest patrons but the company also performs for library summer reading programs, museums, and community centers in Oregon, Washington and Wisconsin.

"We are delighted to be partnering with Artists Rep," Mercer said. "This will be the first time we have ever had a regular 'home' for weekly performances, and we look forward to a lot of screaming, happy PDX kids."
