Three family-friendly routes suitable for most skill and experience levels will highlight the sixth annual Bike Beaverton event on Sunday, Sept. 8 at 1 p.m. in Beaverton City Park.

events at 1 p.m. followed by a family-friendly bike ride at 2 p.m.

Representatives from the Northwest Bicycle Safety Council will inspect and fit helmets, and mechanics from Bike Gallery, Coventry Cycle Works and Bike N' Hike will check participants' bikes and make minor adjustments.

"Bike Beaverton brings our community together," said Mayor Denny Doyle. "I encourage everyone to attend and join in the fun."

There are three routes to choose from this year: 2.5 miles, 4.3 miles and 6.5 miles. Participants are encouraged to choose a route based on experience and skill level. The bike ride concludes at Beaverton City Park with an ice cream social serving as the event's finale.

For more information, including route maps, visit BeavertonOregon.gov/Bike or contact Margaret Middleton at 503-526-2424.
