REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

METRO
PROFESSIONAL MARKETING AND COMMUNICATIONS SERVICES
RFP 2475

The marketing division of the Oregon Zoo of Metro, a metropolitan service district organized under the laws of the State of Oregon and the Metro Charter, located at 600 NE Grand Avenue, Portland, OR 97232-2736, is requesting proposals for Professional Marketing and Communications Services.

Sealed proposals are due no later than close of business, October 30, 2013, in Metro's business offices at 600 NE Grand Avenue Portland, OR 97232-2736, Attention: Karen Slusarenko, Procurement Analyst, RFP 2475.

Metro is seeking proposals from qualified firms to provide professional marketing and communication services for the Oregon Zoo. Successful applicants will support zoo marketing division staff to complete a variety of communication projects and tasks on an on-going, as-needed basis.

Proposals can be viewed and downloaded at Metro's website <http://www.oregonmetro.gov>, click on "Doing Business With", then "Requests for Bids and Proposal".

Metro may accept or reject any or all bids, in whole or in part, or waive irregularities not affecting substantial rights if such action is deemed in the public interest.

Metro extends equal opportunity to all persons and specifically encourages minority, women-owned and emerging small businesses to access and participate in this and all Metro projects, programs and services.

Metro and its contractors will not discriminate against any person(s) employee or applicant for employment based on race, creed, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, religion, physical handicap, political affiliation or marital status. Metro fully complies with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and related statutes and regulations in all programs and activities. For more information, or to obtain a Title VI Complaint Form, see www.oregonmetro.gov.

'Hero of the Heart'

Cook was selected from an array of volunteers, youth, public servants, business leaders, and foundation and corporation leaders each of whom were nominated by members of the community and chosen by a committee chaired by Adventist Health Foundation board member Lynn Snodgrass.

Bess Wills, general manager of Gresham Ford, and previous recipient of the award, said, "Dr. Andrea Cook set out to change the community within a mile radius of Warner Pacific but she has done so much more. The ripple effects of her commitment to community service has benefited the entire region and made a positive impact on countless lives."

Cook will receive her award, along with fellow honorees, Barry and Suzanne Birch and Ardina Wang, at the 2013 Heroes of the Heart Gala and dinner, held Tuesday, Oct. 29 at The Nines Hotel in downtown Portland.

Founded in 1937 in Spokane as Pacific Bible College, Warner Pacific is a Christ-centered, urban, liberal arts college dedicated to providing students from diverse backgrounds an education that prepares them to engage actively in a constantly changing world.

Wellness Village Health Screenings

Department, along with community clinics and local hospitals, consider Wellness Village as one of the best opportunities in the area to reach large numbers of people of color with effective and efficient health screenings.

The screening services include dental, hearing, vision, blood pressure, glucose, cholesterol and kidney function tests. Flu shots will also be provided. Information and signups for affordable health care insurance will also be available.

Other activities include message therapy, food, live music, a child's play area, cooking demonstrations and health-related vendor exhibits.
