LOCAL NEWS

Warner Pacific College President Andrea Cook has been named a 'Hero of the Heart' for her work to provide equitable access to higher education in Portland.

'Hero of the Heart'

College President
Committed to Equity

Dr. Andrea P. Cook, president of Warner Pacific College in southeast Portland, has been recognized as one of Adventist Health Foundation's "Heroes of the Heart," a distinction awarded to local community members who are making a difference in Portland through their service to others.

Citing her commitment to providing equitable access to higher education within our community,
