'You've Got Me' Release Show

On
NE ALBERTA ST
Street

Naomi LaViolette announces the release of her next record You've Got Me with a release show at the Alberta Rose Theater in northeast Portland on Friday, Oct. 25 at 8 p.m.

Her first album received great media review and her new album features a more retro keyboard style, reminiscent of both the funky rhythms of Billy Preston and classic folk-rock of Carole King, while her smooth vocals span the sultry blues of Norah Jones to the ambiance of Sarah McLachlan.

LaViolette is a Portland native and earned a master's degree in classical piano performance from Portland State University. She studied with Portland jazz greats Randy Porter and Darrell Grant.

Portland native Naomi LaViolette debuts her new record with a release show at the Alberta Rose Theater on Friday, Oct. 25 at 8 p.m.

Share Your Old Home Movies

Want to have fun sharing your old Super 8, Regular 8 and 16 mm films with the community and see your neighbors' home movies in turn?

The Oregon Historical Society and the Northwest Film Center host Portland Home Movie Day on Saturday, Oct. 26 from noon to 5 p.m. at the Northwest Film Center School of Film, 934 S.W. Salmon St.

Participants in this free public event can bring in one or more reels of film from their home collections. All films will be inspected and if they are in good condition will be projected on a screen.

Portland Home Movie Day is restricted to small-gauge motion picture film; that is Super 8, Regular 8, and 16mm film formats. No video tape will be screened.

Everyone is encouraged to bring home movies, though it is not required to participate in the day's activities. To submit films prior to the day of the event for early inspection, email matthew.cowan@ohs.org
