'Valentino's Ghost' connects the United States' Middle East foreign policy agenda to the American media's often negative portrayals of Arabs and Muslims. A public screening of the movie will take place Tuesday, Nov. 12 at 6 p.m. at the North Portland Library as part of the Jefferson High School Multicultural Film Festival.

Unmasking the Power of Media

It may appear that we make up our minds about incidents, allies and enemies of our nation independently and with unbiased perspectives. However, have we considered whether our views are shaped by daily messages we receive from the media of all types?

Now is the time to check out that hunch during a screening of the movie Valentino's Ghost, the next session of the annual Jefferson High School Multicultural Film Festival taking place at the North Portland Library on Tuesday, Nov. 12 at 6 p.m.

Valentino's Ghost is a documentary that connects the United States' Middle East foreign policy agenda to the American media's often negative portrayals of Arabs and Muslims.

The multicultural film series is family friendly, informative, fun, and free.
