Portland and Vancouver Gospel singers Georgene Rice, Gerutha Greenidge, and Deborah Greenidge are celebrating the release of their new devotional book and CD 'Undaunted, Songs for the Journey' with a concert on Saturday, Nov. 23 at 7 p.m. at New Song Community Church.

Songs for the Journey Lifelong friends publish book and CD

Lifelong friends Georgene Rice, Gerutha Greenidge and Deborah Greenidge are celebrating their newly published devotional book and accompanying CD by hosting a concert of worship songs and readings from their latest project.

The community is invited to attend the free event with CD's and books available to purchase on Saturday, Nov. 23 at 7 p.m. at New Song Community Church, 2511 N.E. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.

The trio offers their unique perspectives about heartache, disappointment, and pain while maintaining faithfulness in God through life's most difficult and challenging moments.

Undaunted: The Daring Journey of Faithfulness book and companion music CD, Undaunted: Songs For The Journey, feature a compilation of words and songs that carried these three ordinary women from struggle to victory.

Georgene Rice has been a radio talk show host in Portland for more than 20 years and has traveled internationally as a station correspondent, short term missionary, and worship musician. She has lectured on university campuses and is a frequent speaker and worship leader.

Deborah Greenidge is the seventh of eight children. From a long line of pastors and music ministers, her life of ministry reflects a rich heritage of faith. She has served as a music pastor for over 20 of her 30 years in ministry and is known for giving her all in selfless worship and in leading others to do the same.

Zion's 'Worship in Pink' Ambassadors

Church ambassadors Myra Webb, Sylvia Harris, Rae Lockhart, and Lorine Myles participate in the Susan G. Komen "Worship in Pink" service at Community A.M.E. Zion Church in Vancouver.

Community A. M. E. Zion Church in Vancouver recently hosted a Susan G. Komen 'Worship In Pink' Sunday service. Minister Rita-Renee Hollinshed, a mental health counselor and a member of the Ebenezer A. M.E. Zion Church in Seattle was the guest speaker.

Hollinshed is a cancer survivor currently going through breast cancer treatment. In her message, she shared how her faith was the key that helps her get through, understanding that "chemo does what it is supposed to and God will do the rest."

In closing, Minister Hollinshed said, "thou

I go through the valley of death I will not fear.....Amen."

During the reception that followed the Oct. 13 service, breast cancer survivors were honored with a Worship In Pink scarf and beautiful handmade bracelets made by church ambassador Sylvia Harris and helpers.
