Supporting Ethiopian Workers

Several dozen people marched through downtown Portland Monday to protest the violent treatment of Ethiopian workers in Saudi Arabia.

Portland Teachers Rally

Parents, teachers, and community members rallied on the Burnside bridge Friday in support of a "fair teachers contract." The demonstration follows the failure of labor negotiations between the teacher's union and school district.

Administrator Forced Out

After years of battling a mismanagement scandal, Portland finance administrator Jack Graham will be forced to step down. The dismissal of the black executive was made effective Jan. 30 by Mayor Charlie Hales.

Week in The Review

Filibuster Rules Changed

Senators Jeff Merkley of Oregon and Tom Udall of New Mexico were finally successful in their longtime effort to reform the rules of filibustering presidential nominees. A deal was struck Friday with Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid to tighten the restrictions of filibustering judges and other executive appointments.

Schools on Watch

Police are looking for a man who exposed himself to young girls in north Portland recently. Neighborhood schools have been alerted about these incidents and are sharing information with their school communities.

Arrest in Shooting

Two men have been charged in the death of 24-year-old Precious Jackson who was gunned down in southeast Portland earlier this month. Corey Hill and Antonio Lorenzo, both 21, were indicted on murder charges Monday.

Blazers Hot Streak!

The Portland Trailblazers are on a hot-streak. The team recorded its 11 straight win on Monday. This leaves them with a 13-2 record so far.

1. This down payment assistance program is available for households earning 120% or less of the area's median income, adjusted for household size, although specific loan products have lower income limits. NeighborhoodLIFT funds cannot be used to purchase bank-owned properties being managed by Wells Fargo Premier Asset Services.

2. The NeighborhoodLIFT program is a collaborative program of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Wells Fargo Foundation, and NeighborWorks America, an independent nonprofit organization.

Although Wells Fargo is the sponsor of the NeighborhoodLIFT program, you may seek financing for the remaining balance of the home purchase from any qualified lender who accepts the NeighborhoodLIFT down payment assistance program.
